

Welcome to Gouda

Gouda for tour operators

Welcome to Gouda, a real Holland Classic!

The town is world famous for its cheese market, cheese, syrup waffles, pipes and pottery. The compact and picturesque historic town centre with its many sights, authentic boutiques, small medieval streets, canals and courtyards is well worth a visit. All the sights are within walking distance of each other. Due to its central location Gouda is an ideal base for excursions in the region, for example, to Kinderdijk or the Keukenhof. That is why Gouda is a perfect travel destination and should be included in your tour selection, for day trips as well as multi-day trips.

More than cheese and syrup waffles

Gouda is one of the few towns with a freestanding late Gothic town hall. This beautiful historic building with red and white shutters stands in the middle of the Markt. And what about the longest church in the Netherlands: the 123-metres long Sint-Janskerk with its 72 unique stained glass windows? Or Museum Gouda with the unique maquette of the town and special exhibitions? Water has played an important part in Gouda's rich history as well. A canal boat sightseeing tour is highly recommended. You can also experience the archaic atmosphere in the various crafts shops. Thanks to its bustling terraces and restaurants establishments, rich culture and history, Gouda is a delightful destination!

Gouda is centrally located

Gouda is in a central location in the west of the Netherlands close to the motorway. Gouda also has good train links. It is just a 30-minute ride by road or by rail to the cities of Rotterdam, The Hague, Delft, Utrecht and Leiden. Gouda is a medium-sized town with more than 75,000 inhabitants.

Gouda is centrally located

Gouda and the Cheese Valley

Gouda, Krimpenerwaard, Bodegraven-Reeuwijk and Woerden are all part of the Cheese Valley, the region where real Gouda farmhouse cheese is made.

An oasis of calm and space, right among the four largest cities of the Netherlands. And today still, this very Dutch landscape of grazing cows, ditches and pollard willows is where cheese is made from milk of our own cows. From young cheese to fully mature cheese and herb cheese to truffle cheese. The flavour varies from farm to farm and even from season to season. Gouda cheese is not only very tasty, but it also has a rich history. For centuries it was traded in the town from which it derives its name: Gouda.

Sint-Janskerk (church) & Gouda Glass

When the sun shines through the 72 world famous stained glass windows it immediately becomes clear what makes the Sint-Janskerk in Gouda so special. It is the only church in the world where so much 16th-century stained glass has survived. The stained glass windows in Gouda are a highlight of the European art of glass painting. Be amazed by the stunning colours and the lively play of light that give this church a tranquil atmosphere. The Sint-Janskerk is an impressive 123 meters long, making it the longest church in the Netherlands. An audio tour included in the entrance fee brings its history to life.

The town hall

During the summer of 1438, a devastating fire reduced the then town of Gouda virtually to ashes. The town council decided that the new town hall should be freestanding. It chose a new location on the market field, which was little more than a sodden peat bog at the time. Visit the splendid wedding hall, the mayor's office and council chamber. On the right facing wall you can see the carillon with mechanical puppets, which were added in 1961. The leading figure in the carillon is Floris V, who granted Gouda its town charter in 1272. Every two minutes past the hour and two minutes past the half hour you are treated to a lovely spectacle.

Gouda Cheese

When people say cheese, they say Gouda! Gouda cheese is among the best-known, widely consumed cheeses in the world. The history of this famous cheese, which dates back to the 14th century, is still made in the traditional manner on cheese farms in villages near Gouda, such as Stolwijk, Haastrecht, Reeuwijk and Bergambacht. To discover more about cheese in and around Gouda, go to www.cheesevalleyholland.com

Syrup waffles

Everyone in the Netherlands is familiar with the syrup waffle and at one time or another has sunk their teeth into one of these biscuits from Gouda. Its original name is a syrup waffle. Invented for the poor who could not afford more expensive biscuits. The delicacy was first made at the beginning of the 19th century in Gouda. Discovered in 1810 among the oldest recipes, the syrup recipe called for the waffles to be baked from leftover dough and crumbs and filled with syrup.

Gouda candles

In 1853, three gentlemen from Gouda established a candle factory called the "Stearine Kaarsenfabriek". It quickly became a success and was incorporated on 24 February 1858. In 1899, the company received its Royal designation. This factory was the founder of the first, authentic Gouda Candles.

Gouda ceramics

There is a century-old, rich tradition in Gouda of making pipes, household and ornamental pottery. Museum Gouda has an in-house collection of more than 1,200 pieces of Gouda ceramics, the best examples of which are on display in the Catharina Hall. In the depot you can see the most diverse objects. You will see a number of well displayed, well-known dinner service sets. The extremely rare Art Deco vases will hold you spellbound.

Gouda, the beer city of Holland

In the Middle Ages Gouda had the reputation of being the best beer city in the Netherlands. Around 1470 Gouda was home to 200 brewers producing 15 million litres of beer each year. Today Gouda once more has several breweries that brew the finest Gouda beers.

Gouda clay pipes

A Gouda pipe is a clay tobacco pipe smoked by many men in the 18th century. In 1606, English mercenaries arrived in the Netherlands as reinforcements for Gouda. They taught the people of Gouda how to make the pipes. Later, in 1660, the Guild of Gouda Pipe Makers was founded.
